Sentence-templates can be used to document natural language requirements. You want to introduce such a sentence-template in your project and must convince your project manager of its advantages. Which two arguments do most likely put forward in this discussion? (2 Points)

- A. High quality requirements are guaranteed already from the initial documentation.
- B. Requirements that are formulated according to the sentence-template contain no linguistic transformation effects.
- C. Drafting requirements in accordance with sentence-templates can be learned in a short time.
- D. The use of a sentence-template basically delivers greater information content.
- E. A requirement drafted according to a sentence-template satisfies all quality criteria for requirements.

Correct Answer: AB

QUESTION 4

The activity diagram below shows a simplified order processing procedure. Which of the following statements is correct for this flow?

(2 Points)

- A. The flow is not modelled correctly, since no condition (branch) should be present within a fork.
- B. The flow is modelled correctly: the goods branch as well as the export and domestic order branch are processed in parallel to one another.
- C. The flow is not modelled correctly, since the branches for the domestic and export orders must be consolidated via a diamond symbol.
- D. The flow is modelled correctly and the "issue invoice" activity is conducted after the "compile goods" activity.

Correct Answer: C

QUESTION 5

Requirements documentation can either be natural language or model-based. Which two statements are most applicable? (2 Points)

- A. If documentation is model-based, natural language documentation can be dispensed with.
- B. As models are more formal, they offer a higher degree of uniqueness compared to natural language.
- C. In requirements engineering models are more suitable than textual descriptions to reduce the complexity of the entity being considered.
- D. When deciding between model-based and natural language documentation, model-based is preferable.
