QUESTION 1

Clinical social workers empower individuals to function effectively through personal growth and development. They provide advocacy and education to help end oppression and promote self-determination. What public entitlements do professionals strive to uphold for their clientele?

- A. Self-worth
- B. Rights and responsibilities
- C. Legislation
- D. Legal action

Correct Answer: B

Individuals have a right and responsibility to participate in society, working toward a common good. When these rights are protected, a healthy community can be achieved. Everyone has a right to options necessary for human decency. Clientele have responsibilities to society, community and family.

QUESTION 2

Scott has been in and out of traditional therapy with little effect on his problems. He feels the main focus is on the issue rather than the solution, and this tends to place him in a passive, helpless role. He already knows what is wrong but wants to move towards what is right. What goal would a clinical social worker aim for with this in mind?

- A. Empowerment
- B. Positive attitude
- C. Cognition
- D. Structured therapy

Correct Answer: A

Solution building should be the main goal when working with Scott. In solution building, a clinical social worker would attempt to change how an individual thinks about a solution and educate them on how to achieve happiness.

QUESTION 3

A high profile company demonstrates success through its diverse work force. Each employee is a part of a team that has learned to accept gender, race and nationality differences. The focus instead, is on building trust and respect through individual commonalities. What is being practiced at this level?

- A. Cultural diversity
- B. Gender diversity
- C. Ethnic diversity

D. All of the above

Correct Answer: D

Diversity works at many levels. There can be cultural diversity but not gender diversity. There can be cultural diversity but not ethnic diversity, as cultures are often comprised of many ethnic groups. Respecting individuals as individuals encompasses all of the above.

QUESTION 4

Clinical social workers utilize an approach to working with clients that often has a good fit with the client because it can be tailored to their needs. What kind of approach is it?

- A. Eclectic
- B. Ambivalent
- C. Straightforward
- D. Harm Reduction

Correct Answer: A

An eclectic approach to therapy draws from many theories and methods to address client issues in a variety of ways that can be tailored to fit the beliefs, needs, and abilities of the client.

QUESTION 5

There is a wide range of symptoms and severity across the autistic spectrum disorders. Given this fact, which observation is most crucial in establishing a diagnosis of autism?

- A. Impairment in social interaction and communication
- B. Impairment in memory and thinking
- C. Impairment in physical abilities
- D. Impairment with directives from authority figures

Correct Answer: A

Autism is a spectrum of disorders that describe a set of behaviors that children and adults display in various ways. There is normally little interest in most activities and noticeable delays in spoken language. Nonverbal behaviors such as body posture and facial expressions can become a problem with autism. One third of patients with this diagnosis have an IQ within the normal range.
