QUESTION 1

A customer has questions about the features of one product they are evaluating.

What is the first step the sales representative should take to address this?

- A. Supply product references.
- B. Schedule new product demo.
- C. Dispatch service technician.

Correct Answer: A

Supplying product references is the first step that the sales rep should take to address a customer's questions about the features of one product they are evaluating. Product references are testimonials or case studies from existing customers who have used the product and can vouch for its features and benefits. Product references help to answer questions, provide proof points, build trust and credibility, and influence purchase decisions. References:

QUESTION 2

A sales representative has a pipeline with a mix of opportunities at various stages.

The sales rep wants to improve stage velocity.

What should the sales rep do to improve stage velocity?

- A. Sort deals by size and focus on the largest ones first.
- B. Obtain guidance from a manager and create a follow-up cadence.
- C. Survey customers and engage them when the customer requests.

Correct Answer: B

Obtaining guidance from a manager and creating a follow-up cadence is what the sales rep should do to improve stage velocity. Stage velocity is the measure of how fast an opportunity moves from one stage to another in the sales process.

Obtaining guidance from a manager helps to get feedback, advice, and support on how to advance the opportunity. Creating a follow-up cadence helps to maintain communication, engagement, and momentum with the customer.

QUESTION 3

A sales representative is working to understand a prospect's pain points, desired outcomes, and emotional drivers.

In which phase of the sales process is this deal?

- A. Connect
- B. Create
- C. Collaborate

Correct Answer: B

Create is the phase of the sales process where this deal is when the sales rep is working to understand a prospect's pain points, desired outcomes, and emotional drivers. Create is the phase where the sales rep presents and demonstrates how their product can address the prospect's pain points and needs, and deliver tangible benefits and outcomes. Create is also where the sales rep builds rapport and trust with the prospect by showing empathy and understanding of their emotional drivers. QUESTION 4

A sales representative plans to attend a large industry conference.

How can the sales rep ensure the largest return on investment for attending the conference?

- A. Set up meet and greet opportunities with attendees.
- B. Develop a targeted plan and coordinate a series of touchpoints.
- C. Attend as many networking events as possible.

Correct Answer: B

Developing a targeted plan and coordinating a series of touchpoints is a way to ensure the largest return on investment for attending a conference by maximizing the opportunities to connect with potential prospects, customers, and partners.

A targeted plan should include identifying the goals, audience, and message for the conference, as well as scheduling meetings, events, and follow-ups with key contacts.

QUESTION 5

How many days are recommended between calls when reaching out to contacts at strategic accounts?

- A. Two business days
- B. Four business days
- C. Twenty-five business days

Correct Answer: B

Four business days is the recommended number of days between calls when reaching out to contacts at strategic accounts. A strategic account is a high-value account that has a significant impact on the sales rep's revenue, growth, and reputation. Four business days is a reasonable interval that allows the sales rep to maintain communication, engagement, and momentum with the contacts, as well as to avoid being too pushy or annoying.
