QUESTION 1

What can be inferred about the student's work from the explanation offered in the passage?

To whom it may concern,

After a careful review of your submission, we have determined that your piece does not meet the requirements of the literary journal. We thank you for your interest in becoming a part of the journal and encourage you to review the guidelines and try again next year.

We look forward to seeing your work in the future. Good luck!

Claymont High School Review

A.

The student's work met the journal's requirements.

B.

The student's work needs further revision and improvement before being accepted.

C.

The student failed to provide all of the necessary information for publication in the journal.

D.

The student's work content was inappropriate.

Correct Answer: B

QUESTION 2

As the best-informed and most dispassionate of the panel members, Dr. Camila Torrez was the most ?of those offering views on fission technology.

A. unsuspecting

B. preposterous

C. persuasive

D. confusing

E. temperamental

Correct Answer: C

The use of conjunction "as" (meaning because), shows that the second part of the sentence must logically follow from the first part. The missing word must therefore describe a person who is best-informed and most dispassionate. Among the choices, it is only the word "persuasive" that can describe such a person. So, the answer is "persuasive".
